Dear Parents,

I am taking the unusual step of preparing this newsletter early, as I am away at the Catholic Diocesan Conference in Ashford from Thursday afternoon and on Friday. In my absence please address any enquiries to the Executive Headteacher, Miss O'Callaghan.

INSET

Please remember that the school will be closed to children on Monday 30th November. Staff are taking part in INSET.

Ten Ten Theatre

On Tuesday 1st December we will be welcoming the Ten Ten Theatre group to school. (Apologies for the date error in the letter which was sent home yesterday.) This is part of our RE week. Parents are warmly welcomed to meet the Theatre Group from 9am until 10am on this day.

Class Assembly

Congratulations to Class 3A who presented such a fascinating assembly on Thursday. Next Thursday (3rd December at 10.25am) the parents of children in Class 4C are welcome to share our RE Week assembly. The following week (10th December) the parents of children from 6O are welcome to attend.

Friendship Week

Due to the generosity of the children we raised £203.55 from Mufti Day.

This money will be put towards a friendship bench in the playground.

Happy School Bag

A total of £151.08 was raised from this popular enterprise.

PE in winter

Now that the weather is colder, parents are advised to purchase plain navy or school tracksuits for PE activities outdoors.

After school swimming

Unfortunately, more and more children are being collected late from after school swimming. Please note that if children are collected late on more than one occasion, the place will be withdrawn. Collection is at 4.45pm prompt.

Achievement Certificates

Well done to the following children: All of Class 3A, Ria 3D, Christopher 4B, Stephen 4C, Ricci 5L, Rigel and Daniele 5V, Moro 6C, and Clarissa 6O. The Swimmer of the week is Zhegia in 4B.

Have a good weekend.

Yours sincerely,

A.J. McDonald
Deputy Headteacher
